

I walk these streets, searching to find The steps that we left behind Your lonely eyes stare back at mine In pictures from that time I hold my heart, closing my eyes I see your smile, lies behind In this place, you entered my life How I wish, you were still mine I know that if I see you again Beside that cafe we met I' d forget about the past Lose track of time, with you Talking about our lives To show you a whole new side of me And see the changes we' ve made, can we Be more than we have been Start our story again All I can say, is tell you just one thing 好久不见 I

wish,you were still mine I
Beside that cafe we met I'

we Be more than we have
All I can say,is tell you just
